Citizen Advisory Committee Seeking Interested Applicants for Districting Commission

Deadline is February 16, 2012

The Citizen Advisory Committee (CAC) is still seeking applicants interested in serving on the Districting Commission, which will chart the boundaries to divide the City into four wards.

The CAC is responsible for screening the interested candidates to be sure they meet the eligibility criteria set forth in the Charter revisions, which specify that members must be City residents, eligible to register and vote, who are not elected government or political party officials.

If you are interested in serving on the Districting Commission, please forward a letter of interest with your contact information to Ann Kuzmik at City Hall, 83 Broadway, Newburgh, N.Y. 12550. The deadline is February 16, 2012 by 4 p.m.

The initial seven-member districting commission will have five members appointed by the 2012 City Council, and the districting commission will then appoint the remaining two members.

For more information on the CAC, please call Chairman Brian Denniston at (845) 561-1131 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m.
